Simplifying Your Diabetes Treatment Plan

When?

- Difficulty following treatment plan
- Frequent low blood glucose
- Health conditions that may change

How?

- Your clinician may decrease your medication dosing
- Your clinician may loosen your glucose targets
- Your clinician may decrease the frequency of your medication administration

Discuss your treatment plan with your health care team. Changes to your regimen must occur under the supervision of medical professionals.

Learn more at therapeuticinertia.diabetes.org | 1-800-DIABETES (1-800-342-2383)

Supported in part by Overcoming Therapeutic Inertia initiative — American Diabetes Association (ADA)®